

PRESS RELEASE

April 18, 2006

C&A Financial Group Representatives and the NY Giants

David and John Suckey, representatives of C&A Financial Group assisted in the sponsorship of the 2006 Youth Football Experience. The purpose of the event was to help 80 inner-city boys from Link Community School of Newark. These boys had an opportunity to meet and work one-on-one with members of the NY Giants, build their confidence, their football skills and character.

The event was produced by Trinity Financial, Sports & Entertainment Management and Athletes in Action, a national non-profit organization that gives professional athletes the opportunity to share life experiences with children and audiences of all ages.

The event took place in the Giants Bubble, next to Giants stadium, and featured an afternoon of football instruction and life-changing motivational messages from the NY Giants players and members of the Rutgers University football team, followed by a barbecue hosted by the New York Giants.
